

When can I start with my data collection

Kindly note that you may unfortunately not recruit participants, or commence with data collection (i.e. conduct interviews, distribute questionnaires, collect institutional data, etc):

- until the Faculty Ethics Screening Committee (FESC) has reviewed your application and classified it as low risk; and
- until you've received written institutional permission from the relevant participating institution/s (where applicable).